CELEBRATING WOMEN

We celebrate Zoroastrian Women in every issue but considering that the month of March heralded International Women's Day, we thought we'd dedicate a greater portion of this issue of the Newsletter to our inspirational women.

SHIRIN AZARI, born in Tehran, is an award-winning Psychotherapist, specialised in PTSD, working with victims of war and torture since May 2000, especially Zoroastrians.

Shirin is on the advisory board of 'Acute doctors abroad' and also is the Co-editor of The International Journal of Psychotherapy. In addition, she is the Music Ambassador for Peace, working with Refugees and Asylum Seekers, using music as therapy.

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT by Capt. Percy Master

One of the Thrust Areas in the WZCC Strategic Plan (2022 - 24) is Gender Equality.

Let us go back in history when the concept of Adam & Eve was conceived with the idea to give equal rights to male and female. Over the years and in the early stages of history it was always a male dominated world and females were subjected to a lot of harassment and abuse. They were not allowed to take part in the development and progress of the human race. Besides this harassment, they were subjected to childhood marriage, lack of education and were denied their rightful pace in the progress and evolution of the human race.
