FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Year 2025 marks a milestone in WZCC's journey. WZCC was launched in the year 2000 therefore completes 25 years/silver anniversary this year. In order to commemorate and remember this iconic year, WZCC has decided to celebrate it by declaring it as a YEAR OF THE YOUTH. WZCC India is also hosting a Global Convention in January, 2026.

Featured below are two companies and supporters of WZCC offering internships at their companies.

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM PARTNER

Lord Karan Billimoria - Cobra Beer

My most fulfilling legacy is to have played a part in the journey of our Zoroastrian Youth!

The programme has never been about one-way benefit. Interns bring us fresh perspectives, energy, and enthusiasm.

They genuinely help us, they help the team, and they help the business of the office.

Rohan Doctor - Louisa AI

"Now that I spend a good chunk of the year in Mumbai, I plan to marry all these international learnings to offer US and UK university graduates that, thanks to Trump policies, need to return to India but want to work somewhere they can get the same intensity and global outlook out of Mumbai with the chance of moving to start our future offices in London, Hong Kong, San Fran and other places.

Just as Internships signify the beginning of a journey, RETIREMENT signifies an end of a journey.....or does it ?

Read two very interesting opinions on the subject of Retirement.

Shernaz Siganporia says,
"Retirement is a Choice, not an End !"

opinion.

Perses Sethna opines that "retirement" simply means freedom from the necessity to endure pointless work.

And between internship and retirement comes the possibility of CAREER CHANGE.

We bring you two very interesting stories of women, both of whom moved from the stable, prestigious and financially rewarding world of Chartered Accountancy and Banking to pursue their dreams in the Culinary world.
