Shahin Bekhradnia is a graduate of Oxford University with an undergraduate degree in Modern Languages and a graduate degree in Anthropology focusing on Iranian Zoroastrians. She was born and raised in England, and has published and lectured on Zoroastrianism globally.

She has been a long-standing advocate for environmental policies and stood as a Green Party candidate in the UK General Election back in 1992.

She founded a school at Oxford, and was a teacher, an interpreter for the immigration appellate, and a legal consultant for a tour operator. She has just retired after 32 years as a magistrate in the criminal, youth and family courts in Oxfordshire, UK.

Some years ago, Shahin started the Pourchista Foundation in Yazd for young Zoroastrians to enable them to earn a living. Soon afterwards, with the help of supporters she helped to open a senior citizens' day centre there.
